

Consilio is the global leader in legal consulting and services. Our worldwide team of professionals bring their expertise and a commitment to serve to every engagement, partnering with our clients to develop creative solutions for their most pressing challenges. Discover how together we can overcome the obstacles that hinder your team's success and strengthen your business.

Commitment to Service Excellence

Partnering with Consilio gives you access to hundreds of problem solvers with one objective: making your business stronger. When you engage with our experts, we become an extension of your team, empowering you with tailored, defensible solutions that mitigate risk, reduce costs and drive you to your goals.

Global Presence

Our clients face complex challenges every day—challenges that span across borders to create new statutory and regulatory concerns. Our 20+ offices, document review centers and data centers in Europe, Asia and the Americas are staffed with regional experts who work with you and outside counsel to create solutions that overcome obstacles hindering your success.

Best Practices Born from Experience

Consilio employees utilize best-in-class processes and workflows in every engagement, founded in our work with thousands of law firms and corporations—large and small—across geographies and industries. We marry our knowledge and experience to your corporate structure, risk requirements and budget concerns to innovate and create new solutions, unique to your organization—whether it's delivering defensible productions to satisfy a regulatory request, classifying your organization's most sensitive data or optimizing your department's legal spend.

Our clients know that technology is essential to resolving their biggest challenges but struggle to identify which best meets their needs. Our expert team understands that implementing the wrong technology exacerbates existing problems, so we bring our understanding of available solutions' strengths and weaknesses to each engagement, partnering with you to ensure the technology implemented elevates you toward your goals. Additionally, we are constantly innovating, developing new solutions that solve challenges unaddressed by the market.

Problem Solving Across Borders

A Fortune 50 multinational corporation conducted a global investigation that involved three law firms, two accounting firms and Consilio. Our worldwide team supported all parties, collecting data from nine countries, creating three secure data centers in Europe and Asia to meet data regulatory requirements before consolidating to one and processing millions of documents in 24 languages. Our approach ultimately helped save the client millions of dollars in potential fines.

Our Services

eDiscovery

With innovative pricing models, a global footprint and over a decade of experience across the eDiscovery life cycle—from collections to hosting to processing to production—Consilio's experts work with your team to develop the optimal solution, whether the matter is a local project or large, complex and multijurisdictional.

Document Review Services

Each review is different. We help you deliver defensible productions by drawing from our best-practice workflows, rigorous quality assurance protocols and innovative predicting coding models. Our team can support a review anywhere within the world—whether we're simply staffing it or overseeing the entire review.

Information Governance & Compliance

The growing information governance and compliance challenge can be difficult for organizations to navigate. Our industry-leading, award-winning experts pair with you to mitigate risk and cost through the design, development and implementation of all aspects of enterprise-wide information governance and regulatory compliance programs.

Discovery Consulting

For a business of any size, discovery can be an unpredictable, complex and expensive component of litigation. At Consilio, our experts collaborate with you, tailoring solutions that meet your organization's unique needs and constraints, strengthen your discovery process and streamline your litigation costs.

Law Department Management

General Counsel and legal operations executives face increasing pressure to streamline operations and cut costs. Consilio's team of experts works with law department leaders to develop solutions that maximize cost efficiencies, optimize operations and position the law department as a strategic, valuable business partner.

Outsourcing the Function to Trusted Advisors

Faced with a significant portfolio of government and regulatory investigations, civil litigations and human resources matters, the law department of a global pharmaceutical corporation turned to our team of experts to manage its discovery function. The company realized cost savings/avoidance in excess of $15 million by the end of the first year, improved performance and capacity for discovery projects and standardized policies and processes to ensure consistency.
