With the growth in electronically stored information driving ever-increasing document collections, eDiscovery costs continue to climb. The largest portion of that expenditure is document review, accounting for 73% of all eDiscovery expenses.¹ Corporations and their outside counsel face constant pressure to reduce these costs while still producing defensible results within tight deadlines.

In support of these goals, Consilio offers Comprehensive Managed Review, a full-service review that utilizes our management expertise, workflow best practices, quality assurance protocols and access to skilled reviewers anywhere in the world.

AS YOUR REVIEW SERVICE PROVIDER, WE CAN:

Reduce the cost of document review

Code documents with a high level of accuracy & efficiency

Extend your global reach, with local market expertise

REDUCES THE COST OF DOCUMENT REVIEW

Consilio frequently reduces clients' review expenditure by double digits, enabled by flexibility in both pricing and review location and by our experienced team. Our clients can:

- Decide the right pricing option. Our innovative pricing models will help you stay within budget whether you choose our services a la carte or bundle them with our unique V3locity® offering—where Consilio manages the entire end-to-end eDiscovery process, and you only pay for the documents sent to review.
- Choose review site. We can host the review at our low-cost review centers, in major city markets or at an on-demand site—a temporary location that meets matter requirements.
- Gain efficiencies in recruitment and training. Clients rely on Consilio's expert recruiters, seasoned review managers and a network of thousands of prescreened legal professionals to avoid the stress and costs of staffing a review team.

- Optimize workflows to control costs. Consilio review managers average five years of experience overseeing complex, large-scale global reviews, under the supervision of senior sponsors skilled in review management. The result is a process optimized for defensibility, speed and accuracy, designed by lawyers for lawyers who want to reduce costs.

ENSURES DEFENSIBILITY, ACCURACY AND EFFICIENCY OF YOUR REVIEW

Consilio continually refines its best practices playbook to ensure the document coding exercise is done right the first time. The Comprehensive Managed Review service:

- Applies our quality assurance methodology. Quality specialists, working at the direction of a review manager, evaluate all review team members daily, sampling their work, providing real-time feedback and training as needed. We consult with the client and outside counsel to develop targeted searches that identify and correct known coding errors, increasing review accuracy.
- Delivers defensible, accurate results on time. A senior sponsor directly supervises every phase of the project to ensure that the review delivers quality results and meets deadlines.
- Provides transparency and responsiveness. Consilio documents and customizes communication protocols for each engagement, providing daily status reports to foster trust between the client and the extended review team.

PROVIDES LOCAL MARKET EXPERTISE AND ACCESS TO EDISCOVERY BEST PRACTICES

By offering both skilled native-speaking reviewers and innovative review technology, Consilio is adept at helping our clients solve their most complex eDiscovery challenges by offering:

- Industry experts to manage your review. Our leadership team has eDiscovery, document review and law firm experience across Asia, Europe and the Americas. This global expertise is suited ideally to support both small and large, complex cross-border reviews.
- Deep experience with eDiscovery technologies. Our team is proven in leveraging advanced technologies—such as predictive coding, conceptual clustering/searching and phonetic audio searching—to prioritize and classify the relevant documents for review.
- Local recruiters and review centers in key global markets. When reviews cross international borders, clients tap into our recruiters' understanding of local markets and our extensive network of legal professionals. With review centers located throughout Europe, Asia, and the Americas, reviews start quickly with the right team, security, access and equipment.
