Legal invoice review can be a difficult process to perfect; if done incorrectly, it could lead to unnecessary and unwanted costs that could have been easily avoided. However, with the proper process, it is possible to improve litigation spend and step towards better organisational efficiency.

Consilio's Legal Bill Review Plus solution, powered by Complete Consulting, provides qualified, specialised legal bill review resources. We securely augment your existing audit workflows, or work with you to create an affordable remote legal bill review option. With extensive expertise driving legal bill reviews for large corporations and insurance companies, Consilio teams serve as an extension of your own – leveraging the latest technologies to reduce costs and expenses while meeting pre-established quality & performance criteria as part of your custom-designed audit program. Additionally, Consilio's advisory consultants leverage specialised Sky Analytics Spend Analytics technology to identify unique insights and opportunities to control legal costs not available in eBilling platforms.
